Dear Judiciary Committee Members:

State Sen. Michael McLachlan has brought this bill to my attention which I support and hope you support. Reforms to the early prison release program need to be enacted to keep violent people away from civilized society. They should not receive risk reduction credits after committing murder or rape, if rightfully convicted. No one would want to see repeat offenses of these crimes by the same criminals.

Thank you for your consideration,
Maria O'Donnell
